CRUSHED HIM TO DEATH.

John King, Young Engineer on Truck Road, Caught Between Locomotive and Stone Wall.

John King, a French Canadian employed at the S.D. Warren company was crushed between a locomotive engine and a stone wall at Westbrook, at 11 o'clock this forenoon. Mr King was an engineer on the truck road used by the paper manufacturing company to transport its freight from the railroad station to the mills. In some unexplained way, when the engine was moving toward the mill and had reached the machine shop, King was thrown between it and the wall, and his life was crushed out. His father was with him at the time of the accident, but is unable to give an intelligent account of how it happened. King was a young man, without a family.

Another report of the accident in the Portland Press Herald, dated 11 Nov 1901. Told this story, and again changed his name. Copied as printed.

DEATH ON TRAMWAY.

Elmer Siroi Crushed and Mangled Between Car and Shed.

A fatal accident occurred Saturday morning at about 10:30 o'clock on the narrow gauge tramway of the S.D. Warren Company at Cumberland Mills.

Elmer Siroi, a young French Canadian about twenty one years of age, was employed as a brakeman on the narrow gauge train, hauled by a small engine and used in transporting paper from the mill yards to the freight depots at Cumberland Mills and other purposes.

Two cars were carelessly pushed down against the rear car of the train on which Siroi was brakeman and which he was returning to the mill. He was thrown from the car by the shock and caught between the car and corner of the brick store house owned by the company and located only about a foot from the track. Siroi was badly crushed and injured internally and when picked up blood was squirting from his eyes, nose and mouth.

Physicians were hastily summoned and the young man removed to the sheds of the company. Siroi remained unconscious and died in less than half an hour, having passed away before the ambulance call, which had been sent in at the time of accident could be answered. The body was taken to the home of the parents of the deceased on North street.

Coroner Perry went out to scene of the accident and empanelled the following jury: Hebron Mayhew, Charles Q. Towle, Charles A. Hodsdon, B. F. Andrews, Harty F.

Roberts, W. W. Webb. The jury viewed the remains at the home of the parents of the deceased Saturday and yesterday afternoon at two o'clock visited the scene of the accident. The jury will meet Tuesday at the county attorney's office to render their verdict.

The funeral of young Siroi will be held at 8 o'clock Monday From St Hyacinthe Church. Elmer Siroi was the son of John Siroi of North Street, this city, and is survived by a father, mother and three sisters and four brothers. He was unmarried.

Peter Theriault, a brakeman on the same cars, was seriously injured near this spot about a year ago, having had his leg shattered, and has not done a day's work since.

Monday, November 11, 1901 The funeral of Elmer Sirois, John King, who was crushed to death Saturday by an engine was held at 8 o'clock at St. Hyacinth Church. There was a large attendance of family and friends. St. Joseph Society atteded in a body, the deceased having been a member. Burial was at St. Hyacinth Cemetery on Stroutwater St.

On the tombstone, his birthdate is written as June 5, 1880

As reported in a local newspaper the "Portland Evening Express" about Joseph Sirois death, in January 7, 1916.

WESTBROOK MAN KILLED BY TRAIN Sirois on Handcar When Train Backs Upon Him.

Joseph Sirois, about 35, a resident of Westbrook, and in the employ of the Portland Terminal Co., died at the Barrett Hospital in Westbrook at 8:30 this morning from injuries received a short time before while riding upon a handcar.

He was a member of the section crew and had left the handcar house, going west, when an extra Boston and Maine train backed upon him near the Warren field, off Main Street. Sirois evidently saw the train for it is believed that he made an attempt to jump from the car. The train continued on to Gorham and after reaching there sent word that it was thought that a man had been hit by the train.

He was picked up by members of the train crew of the passenger train leaving Portland at 7:30 and taken to the Westbrook station and was hurried to the Barrett Hospital. Examination disclosed the fact that he had sustained a fracture of an arm and a leg and one of his lungs had been pierced. He died shortly after reaching the hospital, although expert aid was summoned in an effort to save the life of the injured man. He was married and is survived by a wife and three children.

This article was from the Saturday morning issue of the "Daily Eastern Argus" of Jan 8, 1916

WESTBROOK FATAL ACCIDENT TO EMPLOYEE OF PORTLAND TERMINAL COMPANY Joseph Sirois Run Down by an Extra Freight Train.

Joseph Sirois, also know as King, a member of the section crew of the Portland Terminal Co., under the charge of section boss Ernest Hall, was struck yesterday morning about 7:05, by an extra freight, west bound, while operating a handcar going in the same direction and received injuries which resulted in his death at 8:25 a.m. at the Barrett Hospital.

The accident ocured on a curve near Conant St. just outside the city limits and on an upgrade and the only person who seems to have seen the accident was Ernest Rideout and his sister, Miss Bessie Rideout who witnessed the fatal tragedy from the window of their house which is located a short distance from the track. According to the story of young Rideout, who is a student of Westbrook High School, Sirois did not seem to hear the train until it was nearly upon him and when he did jump, he jumped from the handcar and from the distance, it appeared that he slipped and teh cylinder head of the engine struck him with such force that it pierced his left lung and fractured his arm and leg, rendering him unconcious.

Medical examiner Geere and Dr. Barrett performed an autopsy on the body. It was found that the collarbone was broken, as was the scapular bone, besides the fracture of the ribs on the left side of the body. Death was due directly to hemorrhages caused by puncturing of the heart and the lungs.

The body was turned over to the funeral director Hays. The remains were taken to the home of the deceased on Central St..

Sirois leaves a wife and four children. His age was 42.

He is survived by six sisters, Mr Vitaline Fortin and Mrs. Laura LaFrance of Westbrook, Mrs Delia Thibault, Mrs Josie Murphy, Mrs Clara St. Croix of Canada and Mrs. Mary Chrisman of Worcester, Mass., three brothers are Jean and Charles of Westbrook and Wilfred who is at the front in France. Mr. Sirois belonged to the "Order of the Moose" and had lived in Westbrook for 19 years.

Also in one of the newspapers: The funeral of the late Joseph Sirois who died Friday as result of injuries received by being struck by a locomotive of teh Portland Thermal Co. took place this morning at St. Hyacinth Church at 9 o'clock. Rev. Father Ouellette said the Mass. The pall bearers were two brothers of the deceased and two brothers-in-law. Burial was at St. Hyacinth Cemetery, Stroutwater St. There was a large attendance, representatives being present from the various societies of which Mr. Sirois was a member.

She married Napoleon FRIBOTTE 28 May 1917, in Berlin, Coos, NH, USA. He was the son of Joseph FRIBOTTE and Rosali GAUDETTE. Napoleon FRIBOTTE was born 13 Jun 1893, in Berlin, Coos, NH, USA, died 27 May 1959, in Berlin, Coos, NH, USA.

Worked for years at the Brown Co. in Berlin, Coos, NH, USA. Is now known as the James River Paper Co.. He was called Paul or Nap by his friends at the plant, due to his habit of napping of the job. He was an alcoholic, and after he left the company, even though he was more often than not drunk, his former coworkers would often take him back to the plant to assist in locating underground piping, for which he reportedly had an amazing knack. He would pace in one direction, then the other, and mark the ground, and say "Dig." He rarely missed.

Children of Laura MERCIER and Napoleon FRIBOTTE:

i. Coral FRIBOTTE, born in Berlin, Coos, NH, USA, died in Berlin, Coos, NH, USA. Cause of death: Tonsilectomy.

Died at early age when doctors performed a tonsilectomy on him at home. The doctor performing the operation cut too deep by accident and Coral bled to death on the kitchen table. This story related by Pauline Flibotte Lambert
